KC,

Welcome Back!!! There is no way around being bombarded first thing Monday morning but I hope this email with highlights of what happened while you were gone will help. Anything you want more detail on we can discuss further. There are two documents:

- 1) Immediate Office, Counseling and Enforcement Updates – I gave Chris and Brian a list of topics and asked them to provide a couple of sentences on each.
- 2) GKM Updates (I created a separate document because there is so much and I didn't want the updates to get lost in the larger document) – Paul, Doug and Will provided both litigation and enforcement updates.

There are a few things I listed that don't include much information. These items need a more in-depth download. I've listed them as reminders to make sure we discuss at some point soon.

I've scheduled an hour after LT for you and I to go over these documents in more detail if you need it.

I hope it was a good trip. See you Monday!!
